Strategic Planning

The St. Barnabas Strategic Planning process is well underway, and the leaders of the initiative want to hear from as many members of the Parish as possible. The first of two consultation sessions was held this past Wednesday, and was well-attended. Thank you to everyone who took the time to attend, and for providing thoughtful comments and feedback. Thank you also to everyone who helped facilitate and record the sessions.

The next opportunity to voice your concerns, bring forward your ideas, and learn more about the challenges that we face now and into the future, will take place on Wednesday, August 21st, 7:00 to 9:00 pm.

The session will be structured into focus groups and will concentrate on four key areas: Identity, Finance, Communications, and Succession Planning. All attendees will have an opportunity to participate in more than one discussion.

If you missed the first consultation session and are unable to take advantage of the August opportunity, the committee is working on other methods of input in the near future, so that everyone who wishes, might share their thoughts and ideas.

We are grateful to Valerie for the hard work she has put into developing the strategic planning process, and putting it into action.

"Except the Lord build the house, their labour is but lost that build it." - Ps 127
Please keep St. Barnabas, its leadership, and its future in your prayers, as we seek to discern His will for the parish, and chart a course for the future.
